It's essential

Once you become a parent, it's vital that you make a Will. You need to think about who would take care of your children if you weren't there for them. The courts will make decisions about guardianship if you haven't specified your wishes in a legally binding document.

It's also vital that you think about how your money and possessions would be divided should something terrible happen to you or your partner, to make sure that your little ones are provided for.

It's easy

At The Children's Mutual, we understand that making a Will is on your to-do list. But many parents just don't get round to it. So we've done everything we can to make it as easy as possible.

We've teamed up with Flint Bishop Solicitors and demystified the whole process. You can call them on 0845 370 9810 (please quote SORTIT) for free advice in plain English. We've also created a special guide on our website to take you through the process. It includes:

- Reasons to make a Will
- What type of Will you'll need
- What information you'll need to make a Will
- How to update an existing Will
- How to arrange guardianship

You can work through the guide at your own pace, making your decisions in the comfort of your own home. Take a look at thechildrensmutual.co.uk/wills

It's quick

Once you've made up your mind, you can complete your will online, by post or over the phone with Flint Bishop's helpful and experienced staff.

Or, if you prefer, you can ask one of Flint Bishop's team to visit you in person.
